SINGING LESSONS

Anyone can learn to sing. Children naturally respond to music and should be encouraged to explore their vocal abilities. Singing promotes self-esteem and reflects positively on the general mood and physical well-being of a child.

Through a program carefully tailored to support individual needs, students will:

- Grow their listening abilities
- Use their vocal cords for relaxation and creative expression
- Be able to perform their favourite song in front of an audience

Petra Rakic will be teaching the private singing lessons. She is a music educator, singer, and songwriter. Based in Zurich, she is teaching children, teenagers, and adults how to sing whilst helping them to boost their confidence through voice coaching. Petra earned a master's degree in musicology in 2016, studying at her hometown University of Ljubljana and abroad at the Humboldt University of Berlin. She coached one of her students to the finals of The Voice Kids Germany 2019. For more information please see Petra Rakic's website: www.petrarakic.com
