PRIMARY DRAMA

Description:

In theater workshops, children learn to express themselves in both standard German and Swiss German, to move purposely, and to embody various characters. The approach prioritizes enjoyment and playful exploration of boundaries, enabling participants to build their self-assurance without feeling pressured. This environment is particularly beneficial for shy children with limited self-esteem, who can gradually blossom. Even more outgoing children learn valuable lessons in empathy, cooperation, and respectful interaction through collaborative role-playing activities.

Furthermore, physical exercises necessary for theater play are explored to promote flexibility, coordination, and balance. We will also delve into aspects like posture, vocal projection, language nuances, and facial expressions, exploring a range of techniques, styles, and genres within theater. Throughout, creativity and imagination are encouraged to flourish.

To offer parents a glimpse into our endeavors, we invite them to observe a sessions at the end of each semester.

Teacher:

Isabelle Glur has been at the helm of the Tamtam Children's and Youth Theater in Männedorf since 2012, where she finds joy in guiding children through the world of theater. Having been a part of Fairytale Theater Fidibus in her youth, she brings a wealth of personal experience to her role. Isabelle's commitment to ongoing learning is evident through her regular attendance at theater workshops. She eagerly anticipates the opportunity to ignite your children's imaginations and nurture their development through the magic of theater.
