PIANO TUITION

Chueja Furrer brings over 30 years of piano teaching experience, offering a child-friendly and highly personalized approach centered on the Suzuki method. She teaches students from age 3 through adulthood, tailoring lessons to each individual's needs and goals. Early music education provides a strong foundation for children, fostering rhythm, pattern recognition, and language development while enhancing fine motor skills, dexterity, and hand-eye coordination. Beyond its academic benefits, learning piano is deeply fulfilling, stress-relieving, and a valuable lifelong skill.

Key Features:

- 30 or 45-minute lessons booked for the semester.
- ABRSM exam and theory preparation available at all levels.
- Lessons offered in German or English.
- Parental support for guided home practice.
- Suzuki-based instruction, tailored to each student's needs.
- Individualized, one-on-one lessons for optimal progress.

Booking Information

Lessons are booked for the semester, with priority for current students. New students may join a waiting list. Additional costs apply for optional ABRSM exams and piano books.
