Club Description

PLAYSPORT lays down a FOUNDATION of SKILLS that will enable future participation in any sport they choose to do.

The PLAYSPORT programme covers Football and Basketball this semester.

An introduction to the basic rules of the game, development of specific skills related to the sport, as well as development of more complex team work like attack and defence.

THE MAIN EMPHASIS OF THIS PROGRAMME IS:

- Development of skills needed in a game situation
- The refinement of when, where and how to move in the execution of a skill
- The continued development of skills relating to direction, distance and positioning
- Introduction to teamwork and continued development of partner work
- Development of decision making in a game situation
- Playing small-sided sports games

The class is held at the FGZ sports hall or outside. Children should wear comfortable sports attire and bring indoor sports shoes. During the warmer months, outdoor sports shoes will also be required. For more details about Playball, please visit: www.playballkids.com.
