2018/19 3.5 year olds and upwards

Violin Tuition

Available Wednesdays (12:00-14:00)

Dawn Lilgé is a professional violinist, composer, author and screenwriter, teaching at international schools since 1996, preparing students for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music exams since 1999. Developing musical abilities and appreciation from a young age can be a foundation for all other areas of life and learning, such as language development, understanding of cultures, emotional understanding, spatial recognition and understanding of patterns and sequences, development of fine motor skills, self-awareness, expression, and more.
